CFPA Spaces

CFPA is unique in providing multiple spaces for events and gatherings, as well as private work studios and short-term housing.

CFPA is a community that strives to respect its people's needs and boundaries as we advance our work. It is within this energized and exciting context that we welcome you!

Renting Space

First, submit a space request. CFPA staff will be in touch with you regarding your request. We then email a contract and invoice, separately or together. Review the rules of the space, then make payments electronically as confirmation. If you must pay another way, please contact us.

Your agreement will outline in detail the space and building rules, and any requirements you may have if you want to host a public-facing event in one of our spaces.
